

Soccer Academy Conduct & Expectations

Eugene Reimer
Middle School

Athlete Conduct & Expectations:

Athletes need to keep in mind that to be a part of this program is a privilege. Positive behaviour and respect should be modeled at all times, both on and off the field. At Eugene Reimer we pride ourselves for being a School of Character, therefore each athlete must be a student in 'good standing', both in academics and character.

Athletes are expected to:

- be aware of and obey all school rules;
- be responsible for their academics, behaviour and time management;
- be an ambassador for Eugene Reimer Middle Soccer Academy at all times;
- demonstrate personal accountability and leadership in all situations;
- be punctual and prepared to start each session on time in the required academy attire;
- respect the rights of all persons within the school including, peers, staff, parents and volunteers;
- work cooperatively and diligently at their studies and home assignments;
- respect all school property, including building and equipment;
- respect the diversity of our school;

As a member of the Eugene Reimer Middle Soccer Academy, I agree to the expectations as stated above.

I will ensure I follow these expectations so we can have a successful academy. I am aware that if these expectations are not met there will be consequences for my actions, which may include loss of training time or expulsion from the program.
